

Coaching Certification

Early Learning

The UF Lastinger Center's Coaching Certification builds educator self-efficacy, improves teaching practice and increases child development outcomes by delivering high-impact, teacher-centered coaching support.

WHAT DO PARTICIPANTS LEARN?

Participants learn the fundamentals of coaching, strategies that aid in goal-setting and modeling best practices. It informs their instruction by teaching them how to effectively collect and use data to engage in coaching conversations that lead to improved teacher practice and child outcomes.

WHO CAN BECOME AN EARLY LEARNING COACH?

Any individual who directly supports early learning practitioners, including:

- Program directors
- Coaches
- Leaders and administrators
- Teachers

HOW?

- 10 online modules over 8 months
- Job-embedded practice and reflection
- Facilitation by a UF Lastinger Center Certified Coach

PARTNER WITH US!

Contact our senior partnership manager to learn more about establishing the Coaching Certification program in your professional context.

WHY?

Participants will experience:

- Individualized, scaffolded supports
- Strong, sustained coaching capacity
- Technical, adaptive approach
- Partnerships with other early learning educators
- Improved child outcomes

LEARN MORE:

Professional development designed for your community

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Flamingo Learning is the UF Lastinger Center's comprehensive suite of professional development products that can be configured to match specific needs in a wide variety of educational contexts. Working with community leaders, we identify needs and design programs that supplement, enhance and extend existing assets. Using a collaborative design and configuration process, we work with you to ensure successful implementation and lasting impact.

WE OFFER:

- Courses
- Coaching
- Communities of Practice
- Leadership Development

OUR PROGRAMS ARE:

- Modular, flexible and mutually supportive
- Designed to meet your community's needs
- Research-based

PARTICIPATING EDUCATORS:

- See immediate impact on their practice
- Experience improved self-efficacy
- Find pathways to competencies and certifications

PARTICIPANTS RECEIVE:

- Personalized feedback
- Strategies to implement into practice immediately
- Opportunities to engage with other educators in the field

FLAMINGO
LEARNING

IMPACT

600,000+

hours of professional development content

33,000+

early childhood educators
since 2015

LEARN MORE:

PARTNER WITH US!

RAQUEL MUNARRIZ DIAZ, ED.D.

Early Learning, Senior Partnerships Manager

RDIAZ@COE.UFL.EDU

JESSICA RICHARDS, M.ED.

Literacy & K-12, Senior Partnerships Manager

JESSICA.RICHARDS@COE.UF.EDU