

Instructional Leadership

Early Learning

The UF Lastinger Center's Instructional Leadership Development program is a multi-faceted approach for early childhood professionals that systematically builds instructional leadership capacity at all levels of an organization.

WHAT IS INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT?

Instructional Leadership programs are tailored professional learning experiences designed to deepen the expertise of instructional leaders, build leadership capacity and address challenges unique to each educator's context.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

- Program leaders
- Administrators
- Coaches
- Teachers

HOW?

- 30 hours of practice with job-embedded strategies
- Personalized feedback from a UF Lastinger Center facilitator
- Online modules
- Virtual or in-person community of practice

PARTNER WITH US!

Contact our senior partnership manager to learn more about establishing Instructional Leadership Development in your professional context.

WHY?

- Cultivate leadership skills at every level of an organization
- Provide valuable feedback to teachers and program leaders
- Understand the difference between coaching and feedback
- Maximize strengths to address unique challenges leaders face

LEARN MORE:

Professional development designed for your community

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Flamingo Learning is the UF Lastinger Center's comprehensive suite of professional development products that can be configured to match specific needs in a wide variety of educational contexts. Working with community leaders, we identify needs and design programs that supplement, enhance and extend existing assets. Using a collaborative design and configuration process, we work with you to ensure successful implementation and lasting impact.

WE OFFER:

- Courses
- Coaching
- Communities of Practice
- Leadership Development

OUR PROGRAMS ARE:

- Modular, flexible and mutually supportive
- Designed to meet your community's needs
- Research-based

PARTICIPATING EDUCATORS:

- See immediate impact on their practice
- Experience improved self-efficacy
- Find pathways to competencies and certifications

PARTICIPANTS RECEIVE:

- Personalized feedback
- Strategies to implement into practice immediately
- Opportunities to engage with other educators in the field

IMPACT

600,000+

hours of professional development content

33,000+

early childhood educators
since 2015

LEARN MORE:

PARTNER WITH US!

RAQUEL MUNARRIZ DIAZ, ED.D.

Early Learning, Senior Partnerships Manager

RDIAZ@COE.UFL.EDU

JESSICA RICHARDS, M.ED.

Literacy & K-12, Senior Partnerships Manager

JESSICA.RICHARDS@COE.UF.EDU