

Contractor Applications Open!

Hillsborough Early Learning Network Contractor

The UF Lastinger Center for Learning is seeking an individual contractor to assist in the collection and uploading of language development research data. Contractor will travel to childcare programs throughout Hillsborough County.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Attend 15-20 minute weekly meeting to provide update to HELN team
- Keep research materials organized and sanitized
- Collect, upload, and store data for participating programs (all materials necessary to perform this task will be provided)
- Submit activity logs
- Report any issues or challenges to HELN Team
- Collaborate with HELN Team to resolve issues and troubleshoot challenges

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS

Bilingual (Spanish)
Car required!

TIMELINE

Contract Work Periods:
May - November, 2023
March - May, 2024

COMPENSATION

Generous & Competitive.
Mileage Reimbursement Provided.

INTERESTED APPLICANTS

Please email Lastinger Center Implementation Support Coordinator,
Karen Molinario at karen.molinario@coe.ufl.edu.

Since 2002, the UF Lastinger Center for Learning has been combining research, practice and policy to improve teaching and learning so that all learners are on trajectories for lifelong success. The Lastinger Center serves over 50,000 educators and 1,000,000 students across 26 states in early learning, literacy and mathematics.

5/1/23